

Dispatcher, Ship Operations

Western Stevedoring has a full time position for an energetic and talented individual to join a dynamic industry that plays an important role in the movement of goods to and from world markets. This position offers the successful candidate not only a great job but the opportunity to build a career in the waterfront industry.

As an integral part of our North Vancouver ship operations team, our Dispatchers work with a talented and diverse team of individuals who take pride in their work and care about the customers they serve. To be considered a candidate for this position, you will need to bring some important skills to the team:

- be knowledgeable in port operations and have prior despatch experience
- have made a commitment to learning through post-secondary education
- the ability to embrace innovation and technology
- the ability to develop key relationships with a diverse work group
- possess exceptional leadership and communication skills
- possess a keen sense of timeliness and work effectively under important deadlines

You will be rewarded with participation in a lucrative compensation and benefits program that includes a defined benefit pension plan and the opportunity to be part of a company that invests in their people. Other benefits include access to free parking and an on-site fitness centre.

This position generally works 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. Monday to Friday; however, there is a requirement to be part of a weekend rotation schedule. You would also need to be available for after-hours and on-call responsibilities.

Western Stevedoring has been an industry leader in stevedoring and terminal operations for more than seven decades and is the largest, most diversified stevedoring contractor in BC. There has never been a better time to join the team at Western Stevedoring and become part of a growing organization. Check us out at www.westeve.com
